Walter Scott

Scott was a strong teacher of the core gospel ... but began preaching on Acts 2:38 in ways Baptists deemed challenging

“Then Peter said unto them, Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost.”

(Acts 2:38 KJV)
