Matt. 19:10ff

The disciples said to him...
But he said to them...

Then children were brought to him that he might lay his hands on them and pray.

The disciples rebuked the people
but Jesus said, "Let the little children come to me and do not hinder them, for to such belongs the kingdom of heaven." And he laid his hands on them and went away.

The background features a sunset over a body of water. The sky transitions from a pale yellow near the horizon to a soft blue at the top. The water in the foreground is dark blue with white highlights from the setting sun. In the top-left corner, there is a white cross symbol. The text is centered in the upper half of the image.

Then they were interrupted by parents who brought their children for Jesus to touch and pray over them.

Then they were interrupted by parents who brought their children for Jesus to touch and pray over them. The disciples spoke sternly to the parents warning them not to interrupt. Meanwhile, Jesus said, “Forgive the children! Stop holding them back from me because the kingdom of heaven exists for these very kinds of people”

And behold, a lawyer stood up to put him to the test, saying, “Teacher, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?” He said to him, “What is written in the Law? How do you read it?” And he answered, “You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength and with all your mind, and your neighbor as yourself.” And he said to him, “You have answered correctly; do this, and you will live.” But he, desiring to justify himself, said to Jesus, “And who is my neighbor?”

Luke 10:25 ff

Jesus replied, “A man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and he fell among robbers, who stripped him and beat him and departed, leaving him half dead.

But a Samaritan, as he journeyed, came to where he was, and when he saw him...

... he had compassion. He went to him and bound up his wounds, pouring on oil and wine. Then he set him on his own animal and brought him to an inn and took care of him.

And the next day he took out two denarii and gave them to the innkeeper, saying, ‘Take care of him, and whatever more you spend, I will repay you when I come back.’

TROUBLE-MAKERS

Mt. 12:9-15

He went on from there and entered their synagogue. And a man was there with a withered hand. And they asked him, “Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath?”—so that they might accuse him. He said to them, “Which one of you who has a sheep, if it falls into a pit on the Sabbath, will not take hold of it and lift it out? Of how much more value is a man than a sheep! So it is lawful to do good on the Sabbath.” Then he said to the man, “Stretch out your hand.” And the man stretched it out, and it was restored, healthy like the other. But the Pharisees went out and conspired against him, how to destroy him. Jesus, aware of this, withdrew from there. And many followed him, and he healed them all
