TORAH DEVOTIONALS

Oh how I love your law ("torah")!
It is my meditation all the day.
(Ps. 119:97)

The law ("torah") of your mouth is better to me than thousands of gold and silver pieces. (Ps. 119:92)

The law (torah) of your mouth is better to me than thousands of gold and silver pieces. (Ps. 119:92)

Idolatry and cancer

You shall surely destroy all the places where the nations whom you shall dispossess served their gods, on the high mountains and on the hills and under every green tree. You shall tear down their altars and dash in pieces their pillars and burn their Asherim with fire. You shall chop down the carved images of their gods and destroy their name out of that place (Dt. 12:2-3)

Let's cut, burn,
destroy anything
that stands where God should stand in our lives

What does God
REQUIRE
of you?

And now, Israel, what does the your God require of you, but to fear the LORD your God, to walk in all his ways, to love him, to serve the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul, and to keep the commandments and statutes of the LORD, which I am commanding you today for your good? (Dt. 10:12-13)

Don't fear the big guy!

When you go out to war against your enemies, and see horses and chariots and an army larger than your own, you shall not be afraid of them, for the LORD your God is with you, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt... Hear, O Israel, today you are drawing near for battle against your enemies: let not your heart faint. Do not fear or panic or be in dread of them, for the LORD your God is he who goes with you to fight for you against your enemies, to give you the victory.' (Dt. 20:1-4)

See, I am setting before you today a blessing and a curse: the blessing, if you obey the commandments of the LORD your God, which I command you today, and the curse, if you do not obey the commandments of the LORD your God, but turn aside from the way that I am commanding you today, to go after other gods that you have not known
(Dt. 11:26-28)

And when he sits on the throne of his kingdom, he shall write for himself in a book a copy of this law, approved by the Levitical priests. And it shall be with him, and he shall read in it all the days of his life, that he may learn to fear the LORD his God by keeping all the words of this law and these statutes, and doing them, that his heart may not be lifted up above his brothers, and that he may not turn aside from the commandment, either to the right hand or to the left, so that he may continue long in his kingdom, he and his children, in Israel (Dt. 17:18-20)

The LORD your God will raise up for you a prophet like me from among you, from your brothers—it is to him you shall listen— (Dt. 18:15)

And there has not arisen a prophet since in Israel like Moses, whom the LORD knew face to face, none like him for all the signs and the wonders that the LORD sent him to do in the land of Egypt, to Pharaoh and to all his servants and to all his land, and for all the mighty power and all the great deeds of terror that Moses did in the sight of all Israel (Dt. 34:10-12)
