Point For Home

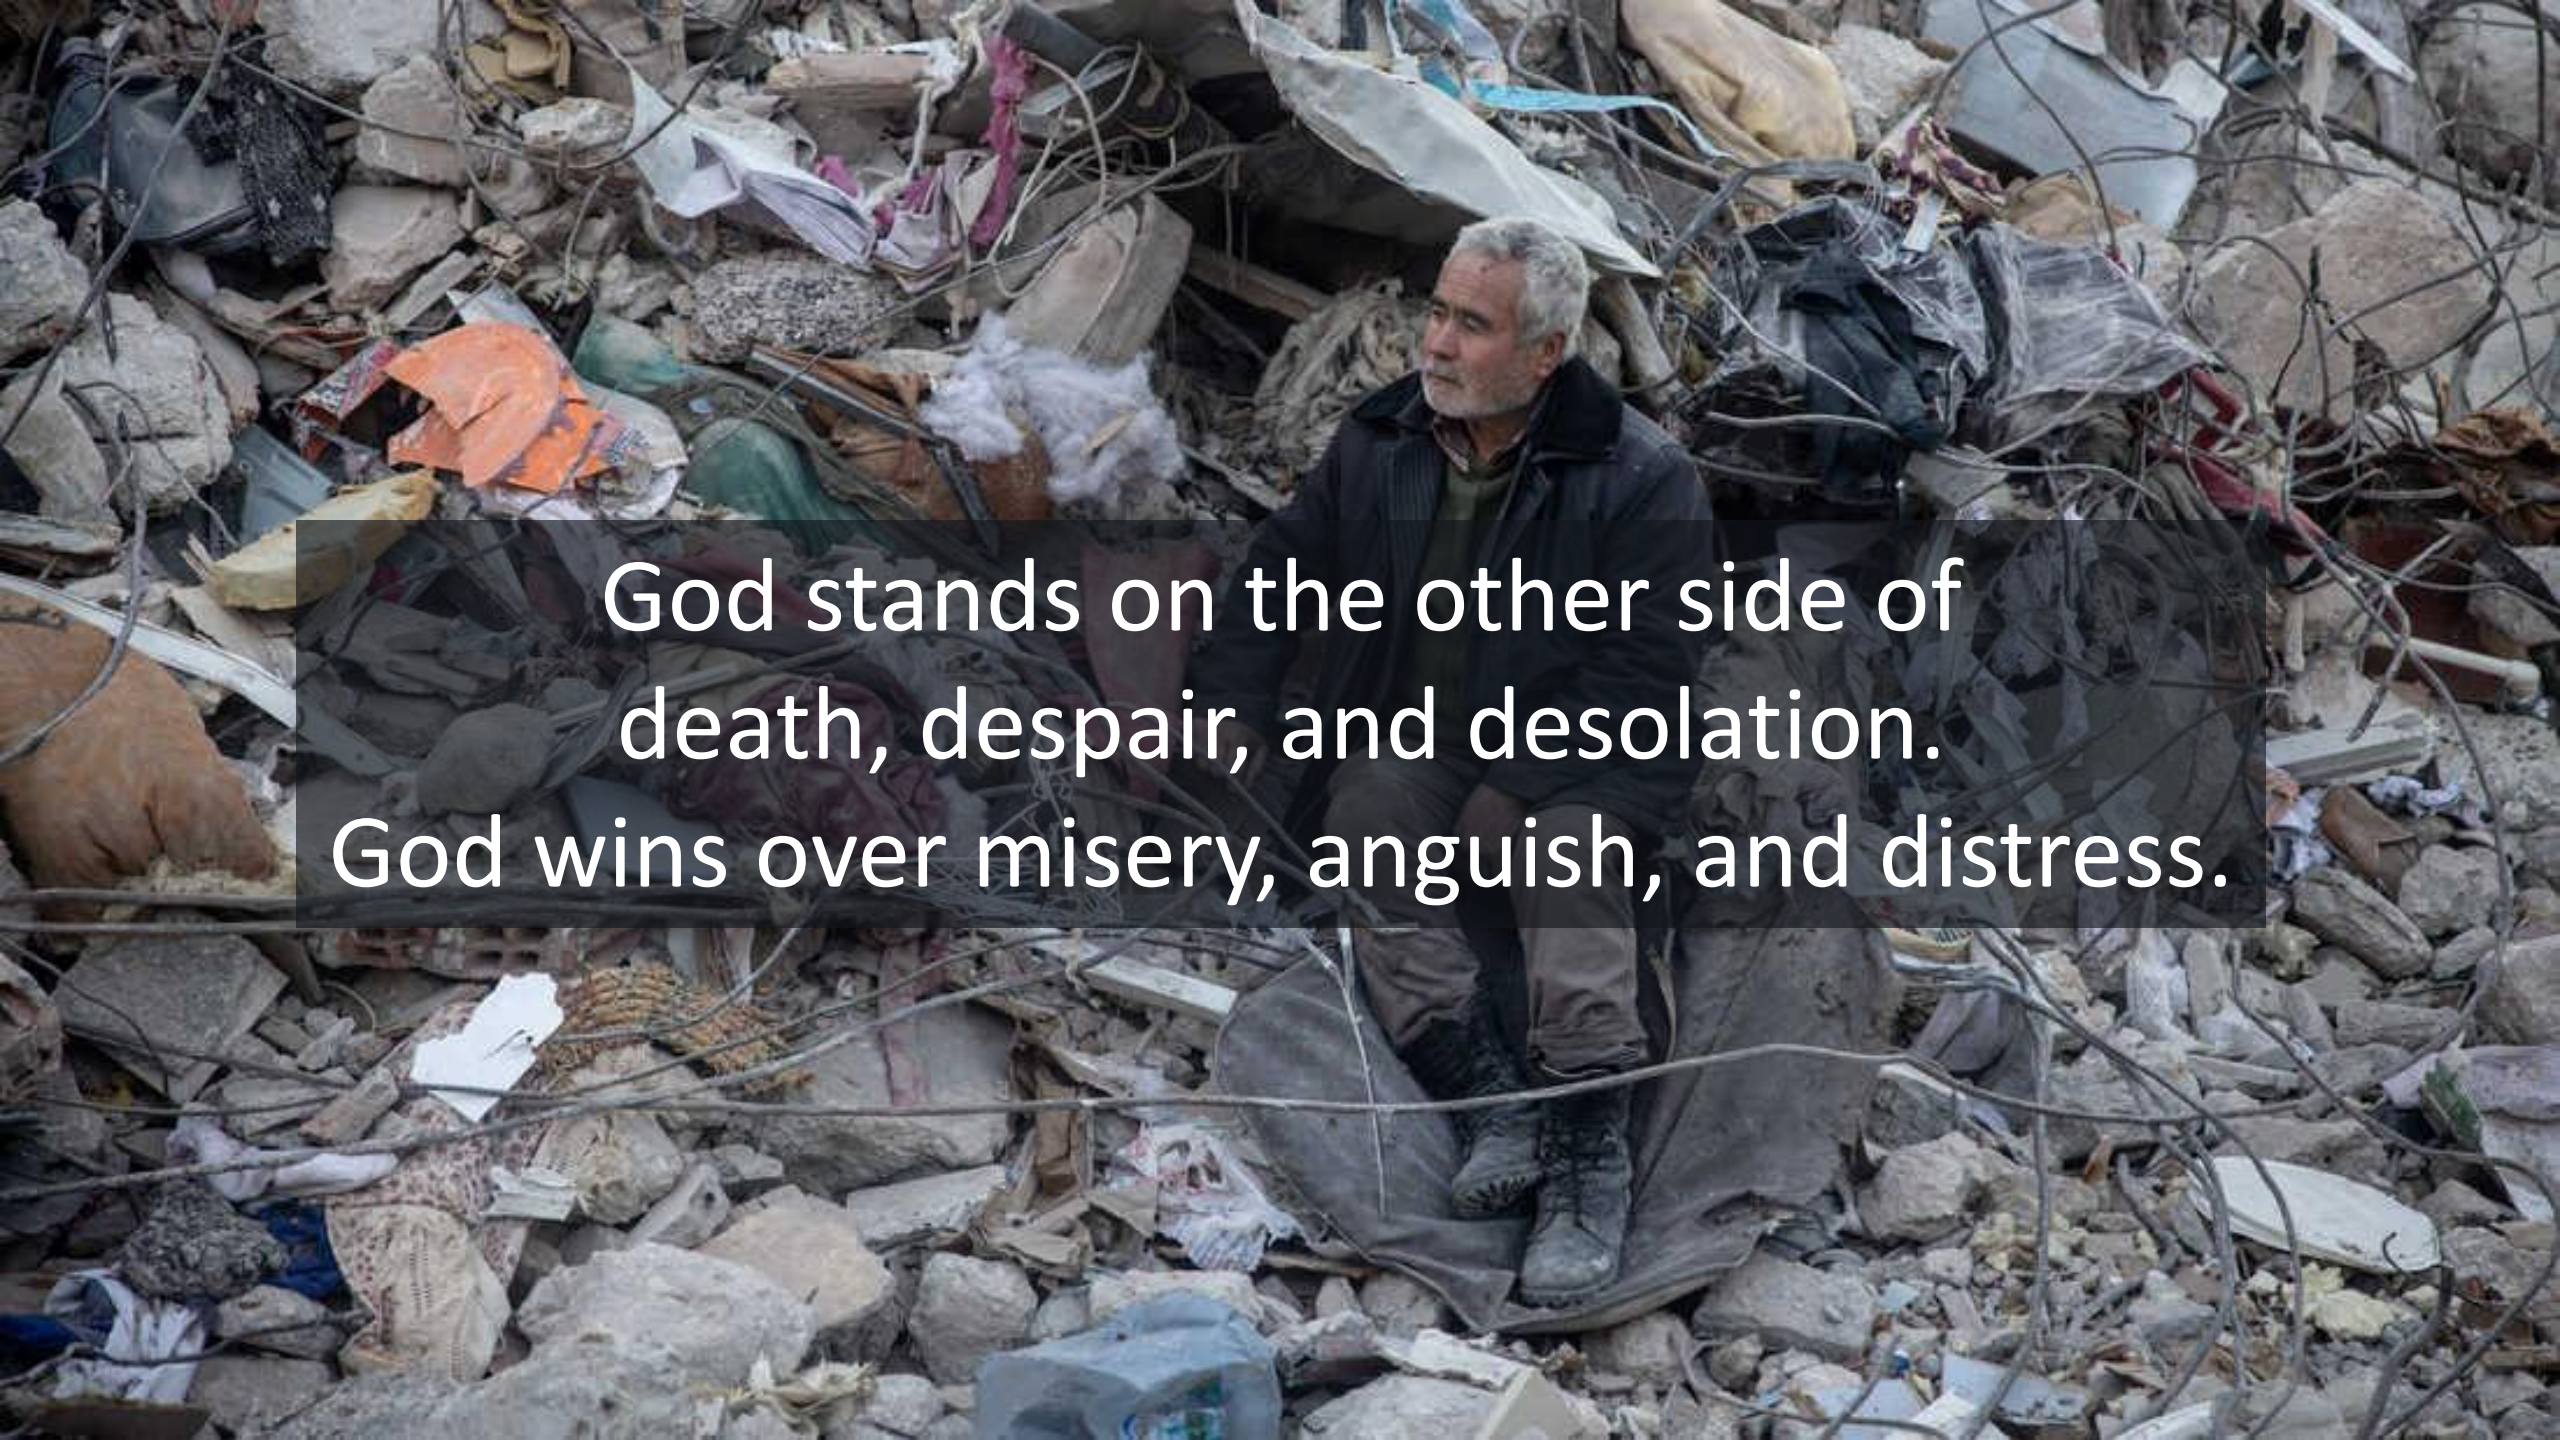

“Is it not for you to know justice? – You who hate the good and love the evil”
(Mic. 3:1-2)

BE AUTHENTIC

Justice is more than a courtroom

He has told you, O man, what is good; and what does the LORD require of you but to do justice, and to love kindness, and to walk humbly with your God?

(Mic. 6:8)

A photograph of an elderly man with grey hair and a beard, wearing a dark jacket and pants, sitting amidst a large pile of rubble and debris. The debris includes broken concrete, wood, plastic, and other unrecognizable fragments. The man is looking off to the side with a somber expression. A semi-transparent dark grey box is overlaid on the center of the image, containing white text.

God stands on the other side of death, despair, and desolation.
God wins over misery, anguish, and distress.

A glass bottle of beer and a glass of beer on a wooden table with a patterned cloth. The background is a textured, brown fabric.

We live in blurry days;
God will bring purity and peace

“He shall stand and shepherd his flock in the strength of the LORD, in the majesty of the name of the LORD his God. And they shall dwell secure.... And he shall be their peace”
