John Calvin (1509-1564)

“We will see some who are so deranged, not only in religion but who in all things reveal their monstrous nature, that they will say that the sun does not move, and that it is the earth which shifts and turns. When we see such minds we must indeed confess that the devil possesses them, and that God sets them before us as mirrors, in order to keep us in his fear.”

The word "Hittites" is written in red text in the upper left quadrant.

One God apart from nature.
Not many gods as part of nature.

God is above creation.
Not captive to creation.

God makes nature,
he isn't tied to it.

God is outside space/time.
Not captive to space/time.

God makes time,
he isn't tied to it.

God is not a sexual being.
Gods are gendered.

God is not a super-sized human.

Gods are s/s'ed humans w/ human limitations.

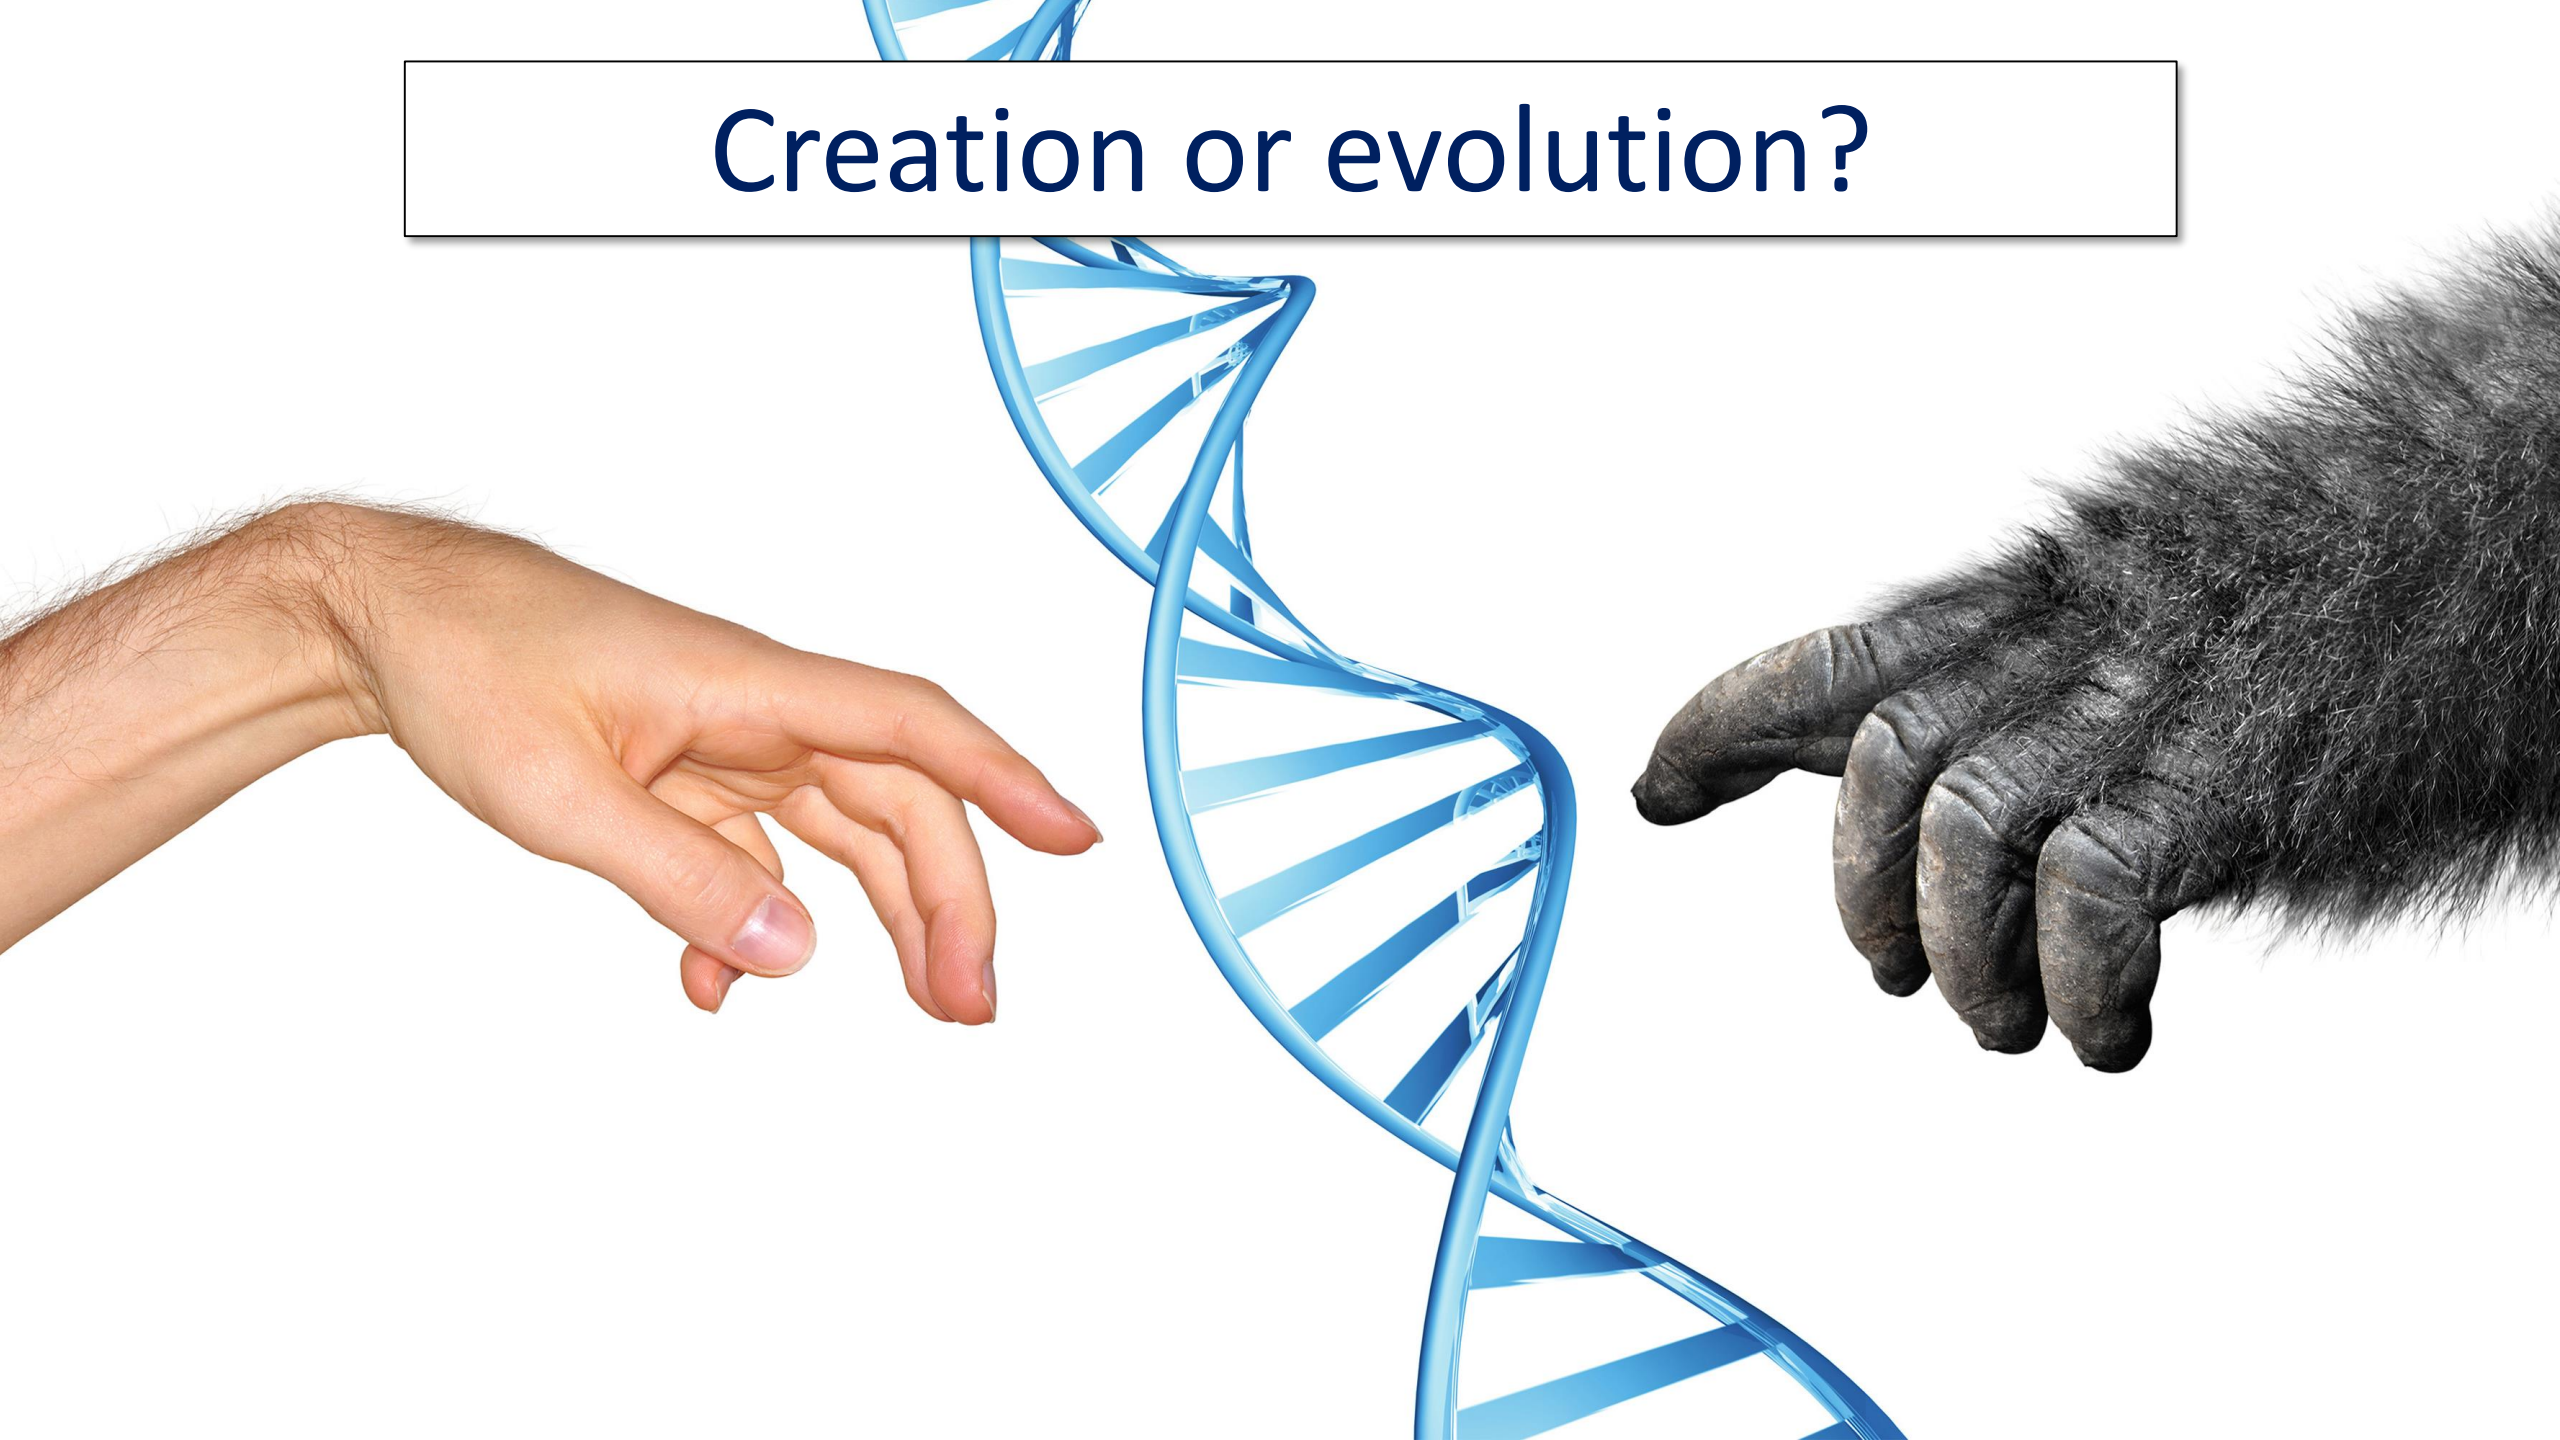

God makes humans for fellowship.
Gods make humans for ease of life.

God makes nature for humans.
Gods tame nature for the gods uses.

A top-down view of various metal hardware items scattered on a dark, textured wooden surface. In the center is a bright blue rectangular sign with a black border and hand-drawn corner brackets. The sign contains the text 'COME BACK' in a white, hand-drawn, blocky font. Surrounding the sign are numerous silver-colored metal bolts of different lengths and sizes, some with hexagonal heads and others with conical heads. There are also several hexagonal nuts. A single open-end wrench with the number '13' on both sides of its handle lies horizontally above the sign.

An aerial photograph of a vast, dense forest covering a mountain slope. The trees are mostly evergreens, with some deciduous trees showing early autumn colors of yellow and orange. A white rectangular box is centered in the middle of the image, containing the text "Don't miss the forest for the trees" in a dark blue, sans-serif font. The background shows a misty or hazy atmosphere, particularly on the right side where the forest meets a body of water or a valley.

The unique awesomeness of God in his revelation

For the LORD your God is God of gods and Lord of lords, the great, the mighty, and the awesome God

- Moses (Deuteronomy 10:17)

The unique awesomeness
of God in his creation

O LORD, our Lord, how majestic is your name in all the earth! You have set your glory above the heavens...

- David (Psalm 8)

Your importance to God

...When I look at your heavens, the work of your fingers, the moon and the stars, which you have set in place, what is man that you are mindful of him?

Your importance to God

Yet you have made him a little lower than the heavenly beings and crowned him with glory and honor. You have given him dominion over the works of your hands.
