“For two whole years Paul stayed there in his own rented house and welcomed all who came to see him. Boldly and without hindrance he preached the kingdom of God and taught about the Lord Jesus Christ.” (Acts 28:30-31)

A satellite-style map of the Mediterranean region, showing the Italian Peninsula, the Balkans, and North Africa. The map is oriented with North at the top. A white rectangular label with the word "Rome" is positioned over the Italian Peninsula. The landmasses are shown in shades of green and brown, while the sea is a deep blue. Clouds are visible in the upper left and right portions of the image.

Your attitude should be the same as that of Christ Jesus ...

Who, being in very nature God, did not regard equality with God a thing to be grasped, but made himself nothing, taking the very nature of a servant, being made in human likeness. And being found in appearance as a man, he humbled himself and became obedient to death – even death on a cross! Therefore God exalted him to the highest place and gave him the name that is above every name, that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.” (2:6-11)
