Refresher

- Poetry:

The expression of thought, imagination or feeling

in a language and a form

adapted to stir the imagination and emotions.

Refresher Cont'd

- Not Rhyme and Rhythm
- Parallelism is Key

Parallelism:

A balanced thought pattern where one line of poetry is compared to a following line (or lines).

Psalm 145

- Verse 13

Psalm 137

By the rivers of Babylon we sat and wept
when we remembered Zion.

There on poplars we hung our harps,

For there our captors asked us for songs,
our tormentors demanded songs of joy;
they said, "Sing us one of the songs of Zion.

Psalm 137 Cont'd

How can we sing the songs of the Lord (ha
'shim) while in a foreign land?

If I forget you, O Jerusalem, may my right hand forget its skill.

May my tongue cling to the roof of my mouth
if I do not remember you, if I do not consider Jerusalem my highest joy.

Psalm 137 Cont'd

Remember, O Lord, what the Edomites did on the day Jerusalem fell. “Tear it down,” they cried, “tear it down to its foundations!”

O Daughter of Babylon, doomed to destruction, happy is he who spays you for what you have done to us – he who seizes your infants and dashes them against the rocks.

Psalm 23

The LORD [Yahweh] is my shepherd, I shall not want.

He makes me lie down in green pastures,

He leads me beside quiet waters,

He restores my soul.

He guides me in paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Even though I walk through the valley of death I will fear no evil

For you are with me, your rod and your staff they comfort me

You prepare a table for me in the presence of my enemies.

You anoint my head with oil; my cup overflows.

Surely goodness and love will follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the LORD [Yahweh] forever.

Psalm 51

Have mercy on me, O God, according to your unfailing love;

According to your great compassion blot out my transgressions.

Wash away all my iniquity and cleanse me
from my sin.

Create in me a pure heart, O God, and renew a steadfast spirit within me.
