For a just trial, the defendant must know for what crimes he or she is being tried

At the time of Paul, a Roman trial
typically had a “formula” stage
where the charges were clarified

A “statue” that “fell from the sky” at a Temple of Artemis

Ephesus

Ephesus

I have set eyes on the wall of lofty Babylon on which is a road for chariots, and the statue of Zeus by the Alpheus, and the hanging gardens, and the colossus of the Sun, and the huge labour of the high pyramids, and the vast tomb of Mausolus; but when I saw the house of Artemis that mounted to the clouds, those other marvels lost their brilliancy, and I said, 'Lo, apart from Olympus, the Sun never looked on aught so grand. – Antipater of Sidon

About the Ephesians ... that large sums of money ... belonging to private citizens and deposited in the temple of Artemis, not alone money of the Ephesians but also of aliens and of persons from all parts of the world, and in some cases of commonwealths and kings, money which all deposit there in order that it might be safe, since no one has dared to violate that place. - Dio Chrysostom
