“I am a Jew, born in Tarsus in Cilicia, but brought up in this city. Under Gamaliel I was thoroughly trained in the law of our fathers and was just as zealous for God as any of you are today.” (Acts 22:1-3)

Then Paul, knowing that some of them were Sadducees and the others Pharisees, called out in the Sanhedrin,

“Brothers, I am a Pharisee, the son of a Pharisee”

Acts 26: Paul and King Agrippa

“I not only locked up many of the saints in prison after receiving authority from the chief priests, but when they were put to death I cast my vote against them” (Acts 26:10).

Phil. 3:5-6, I was “circumcised on the eighth day, of the people of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, a Hebrew of Hebrews; as to the law, a Pharisee; as to zeal, a persecutor of the church; as to righteousness under the law, blameless.”

Most important
Pharisee belief Paul kept was the resurrection

Paul studied at the feet of Gamaliel, a Pharisee who was head of the school of Hillel

Shammai vs. Hillel on Gentile conversion

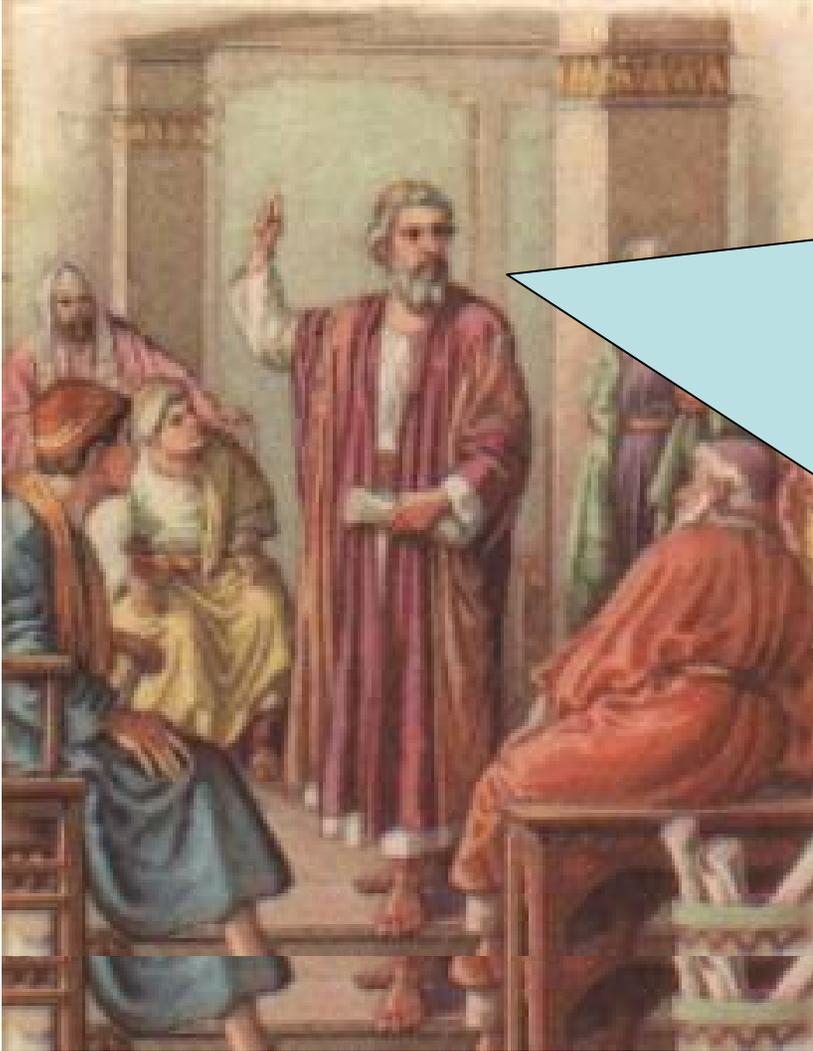

Hillel “lax” or pragmatic?

Gamaliel takes a Hillel approach

Men of Israel, consider carefully what you intend to do. Leave these men alone! Let them go! For if their purpose or activity is of human origin, it will fail. But if it is from God, you will not be able to stop these men; you will only find yourselves fighting against God."

Paul sounds like Gamaliel/Hillel writing on marriage

Measure what we hear by what God has said

“Now the Bereans were of more noble character than the Thessalonians, for they received the message with great eagerness and examined the Scriptures every day to see if what Paul said was true” (Acts 17:11).
