The Long and Winding Road

Jesus – The Good Shepherd

Jesus – The Good Shepherd

Jesus – The Good Shepherd

I am the good shepherd. I know my own and my own know me
(Jn. 10:15)

We need to get ourselves into a shepherding mindset today!

A REAL shepherd

Not a REAL shepherd

A REAL shepherd

The analogy goes back to Israel's roots

Let the LORD, the God of the spirits of all flesh, appoint a man over the congregation who shall go out before them and come in before them, who shall lead them out and bring them in, that the congregation of the LORD may not be as sheep that have no shepherd (Nm. 27:16-17)

Oh come, let us worship and bow down; let us kneel before the LORD, our Maker! For he is our God, and we are the people of his pasture, and the sheep of his hand. Today, if you hear his voice, do not harden your hearts (Ps. 95:6-9)

Make a joyful noise to the LORD, all the earth! Serve the LORD with gladness! Come into his presence with singing! Know that the LORD, he is God! It is he who made us, and we are his; we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture. Enter his gates with thanksgiving, and his courts with praise! Give thanks to him; bless his name! (Ps. 100:1-3)
