Mark,

I'm studying Matthew 7:15. Considering false prophets or false teachers among us today, what message or messages do you think have the greatest tendency to keep people from genuinely following Christ?

Blessings,
Andy

Ooohhh... Hmmm... Let's see...

In America? I think that most people are so wrapped up in themselves, that any message that caters to the individual (what we already think, what we already like, what we find self-satisfying or self-approved) is one that resonates as "truth" even though it may be false. We have a generation that measures truth by their own experience and feeling, rather than an objective measuring rod like Scripture.

This is truly "sheep's clothing." It's what folks want!

BTW, the word "Beware" ("prosechete" - pronounced "prose- eck- a tay") means "Pay attention to!" It's an imperative telling folks to "Look at carefully!" You can see the wolf in sheep's clothing, but you need to be alert and looking carefully!

That's my immediate thought, for what it's worth!

SCRIPTURE

“The revelation of the Book,
in which there is no doubt,
from the Lord of the universe.
Do they perchance say, ‘He made it up’? No, this is the truth from your Lord” (32:2-3)
