Find Paul, lay hands on him.
He is my chosen instrument.

“I will show him how much
he must suffer for the sake of my name.”

So what does Paul's suffering
have to do with Paul's strengths
and weaknesses?

We find our answers in some problems
at Corinth

Some came in claiming to be “super apostles” putting down Paul and his teaching as inferior

Seeking to lead the Corinthians “astray
from a sincere and
pure devotion to Christ” (2 Cor. 11:3)

Leaving Paul forced to prove his credentials

Though there is nothing to be gained by it, I will go on to visions and revelations of the Lord.

I know a man in Christ who fourteen years ago was caught up to the third heaven ... this man was caught up into paradise.

And he heard things that cannot be told, which man may not utter. On behalf of this man, I will boast, but on my own behalf I will not boast, except of my weaknesses.

Though if I wished to boast, I would not be a fool, for I would be speaking the truth. But I refrain from speaking it, so that no one may speak more of me than he sees in me or hears from me.

So to keep from being too elated by the surpassing greatness of the revelations, a thorn was given me in the flesh, a messenger of Satan to harass me, to keep me from being too elated.

Three times I pleaded with the Lord about this, that it should leave me. But he said to me, "My grace is sufficient for you, for my power is made perfect in weakness."

Therefore I will boast all the more gladly of my weaknesses, so that the power of Christ may rest upon me.

For the sake of Christ, then, I am content with weaknesses, insults, hardships, persecutions, and calamities.

For when I am weak, then I am strong

What was Paul's thorn?
