

Paul, His Life and Teachings

Paul Gets to Rome

Lesson 29

Biblical-Literacy.com

© Copyright 2008 by W. Mark Lanier. Permission hereby granted to reprint this document in its entirety without change, with reference given, and not for financial profit.

“I can’t wait to get patient!”

Can you imagine the wait of Joseph?

Paul was into the third year from a promise he would preach in Rome

A satellite map of the Mediterranean Sea and surrounding landmasses. The sea is a deep blue, while the land is shown in shades of green and brown. The Italian Peninsula is on the left, and the Middle East is on the right. A red circle is drawn in the western part of the sea. Two labels with asterisks are present: '* Rome' in the top left and 'Jerusalem *' in the bottom right.

* Rome

Jerusalem *

* Rome

Jerusalem *

* Rome

Jerusalem *

They stayed in Malta for the Winter

Paul was welcomed by the natives

The Maltese
were not your typical barbarians!

The locals built a fire for the castaways

Paul went to work as well

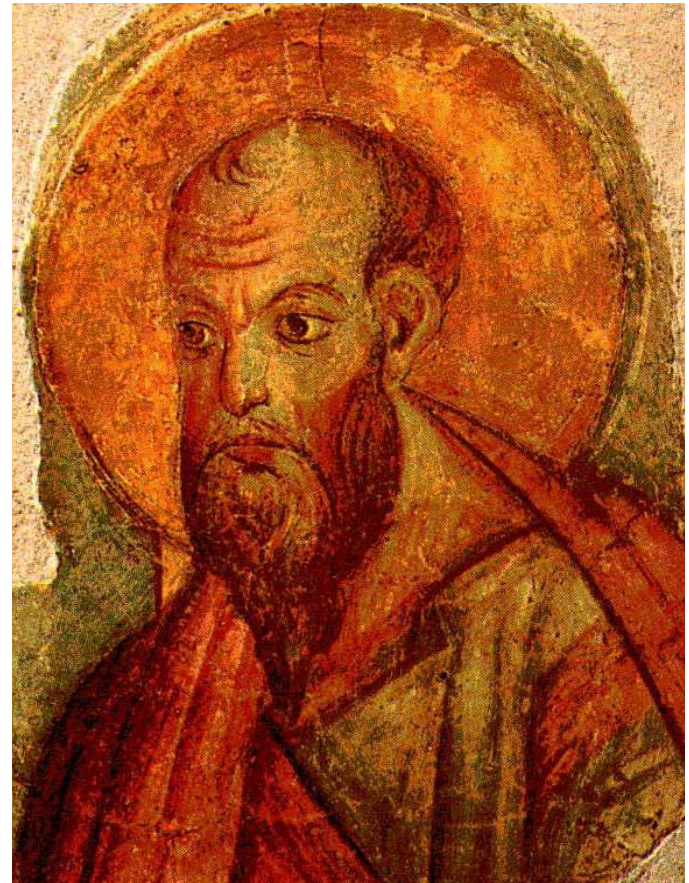

“He’s a murderer!”

“He’s a murderer!”

“I meant he’s a god!”

Publius, the “first man of Malta”, received Paul and others for three days

Publius, the “first man of Malta”, received Paul and others for three days

Publius, the “first man of Malta”, received Paul and others for three days

Publius, the “first man of Malta”, received Paul and others for three days

Paul healed the island's sick

Paul and others hopped the next grain
ship to Italy

* Rome

A satellite map of the Mediterranean Sea and surrounding landmasses. The sea is a deep blue, while the land is shown in naturalistic colors of green, brown, and tan. The Italian Peninsula is prominent on the left, and the North African coast is visible at the bottom. The map includes labels for Rome, Syracuse, and Jerusalem, each preceded by an asterisk. A red circle and line highlight the location of Syracuse.

* Syracuse

Jerusalem *

* Rome

This is a topographical map of the Mediterranean Sea and surrounding landmasses. The sea is depicted in dark blue, while the land is shown in shades of green and brown, indicating elevation. The Italian Peninsula is on the left, and the North African coast is at the bottom. A red line with a circular endpoint at Syracuse connects it to Rhegium. Labels for Rome, Rhegium, Syracuse, and Jerusalem are present, with the first three marked with asterisks.

* Rhegium

* Syracuse

Jerusalem *

* Rome
* Puteoli

* Rhegium
* Syracuse

Jerusalem *

On way to Puteoli, sailed past the island of Capri

Bay of Naples

Paul was hosted by the church in Pozzuoli (Puteoli)

Brothers from the Roman church gave Paul a royal welcome
on the Appian
Way

In Rome Paul had a measure of freedom but was still guarded by a soldier

Paul spoke first to the Jews in
Rome

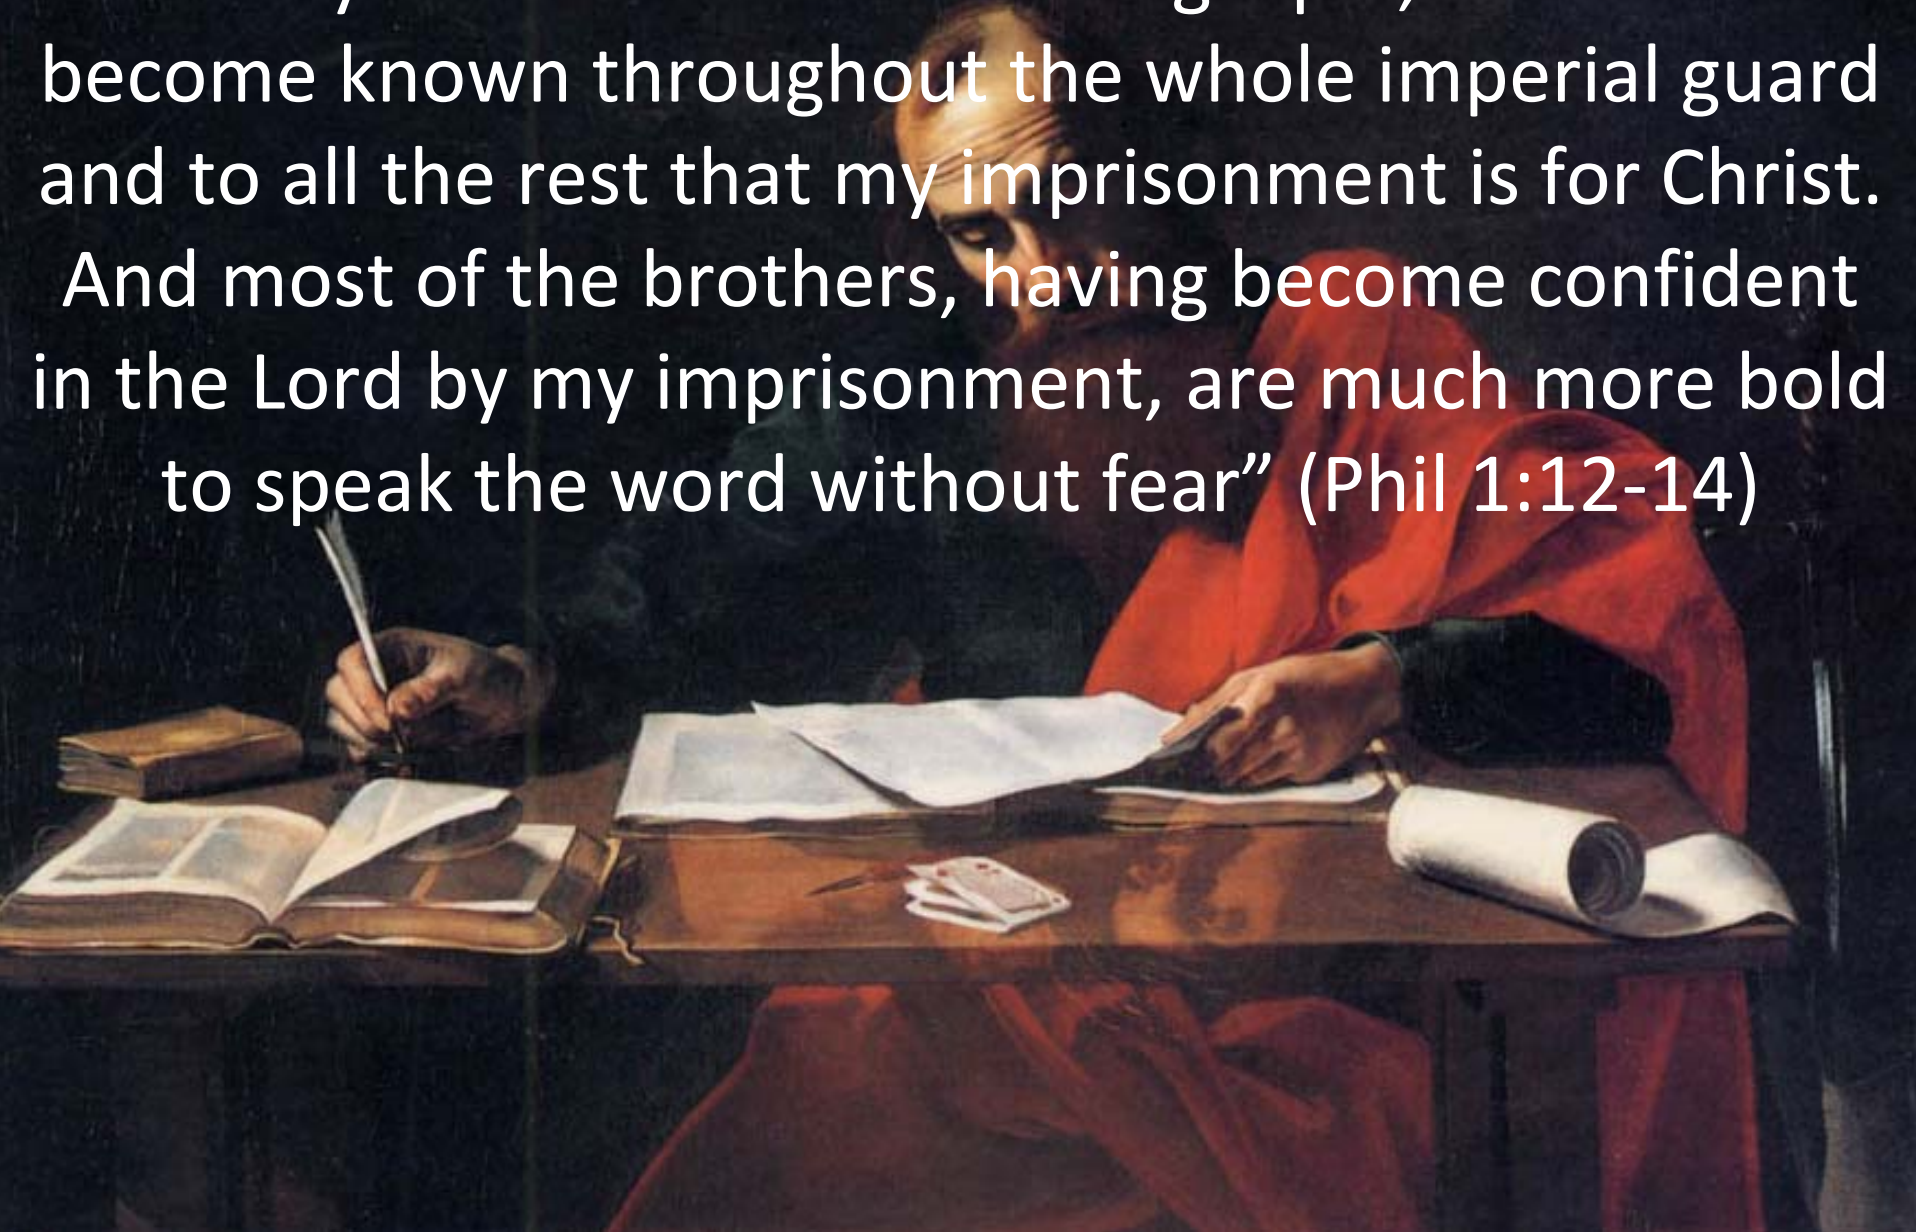

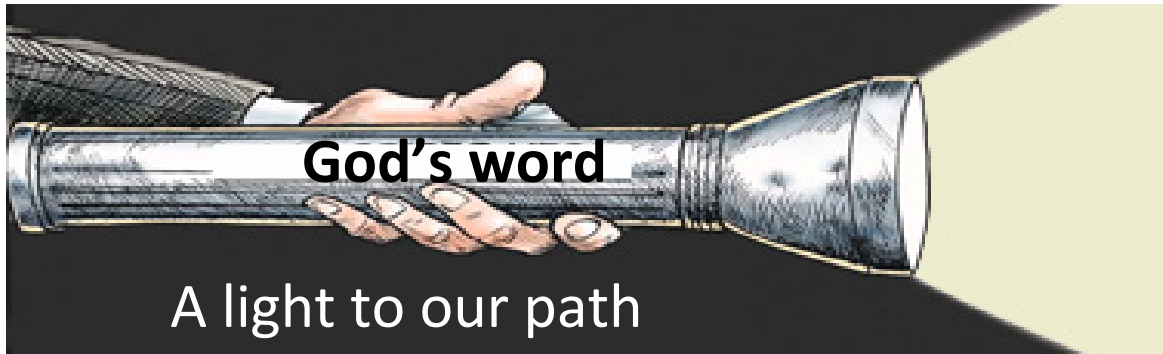

Paul was “proclaiming the kingdom of God and teaching about the Lord Jesus Christ with all boldness and without hindrance” (Acts 28:30-31)

Paul writes his letters to Philippi, Colossae, Ephesus and Philemon

I want you to know that what has happened to me has really served to advance the gospel, so that it has become known throughout the whole imperial guard and to all the rest that my imprisonment is for Christ. And most of the brothers, having become confident in the Lord by my imprisonment, are much more bold to speak the word without fear” (Phil 1:12-14)

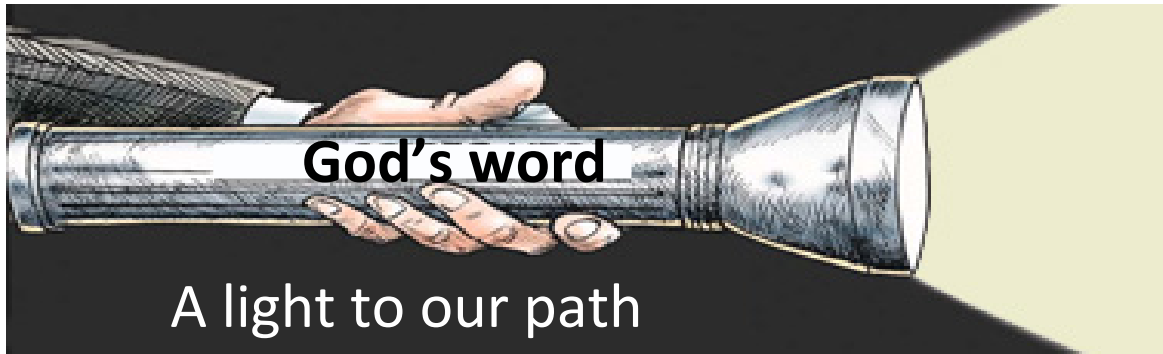

Points for Home

“No doubt this man is a
murderer” (Acts 28:6)

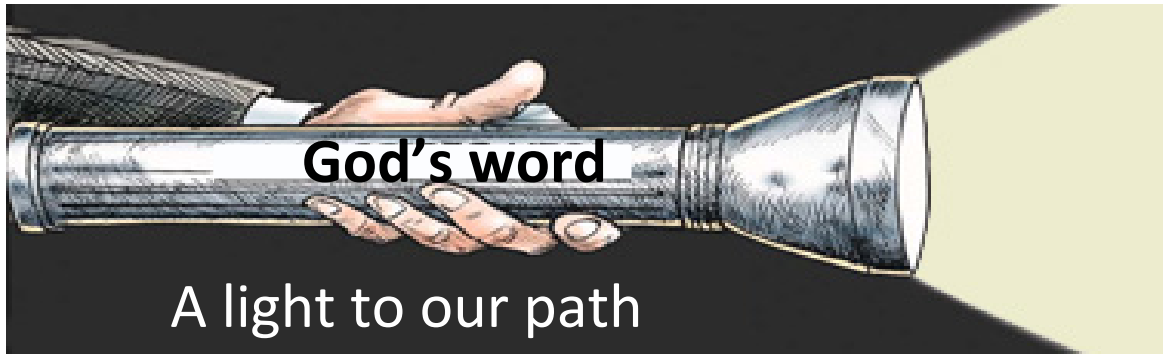

Points for Home

“No doubt this man is a
murderer” (Acts 28:6)

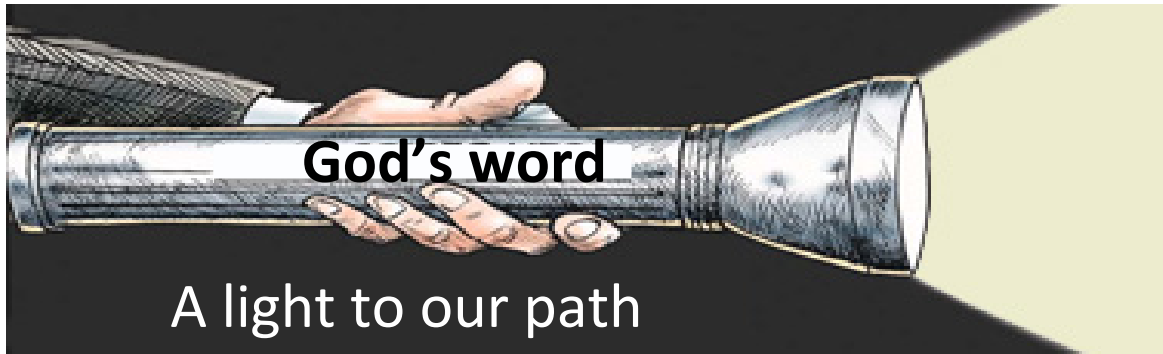

Let us carefully and with reverence consider what we know of God

Points for Home

“Paul had gathered a bundle of sticks” (Acts 28:3)

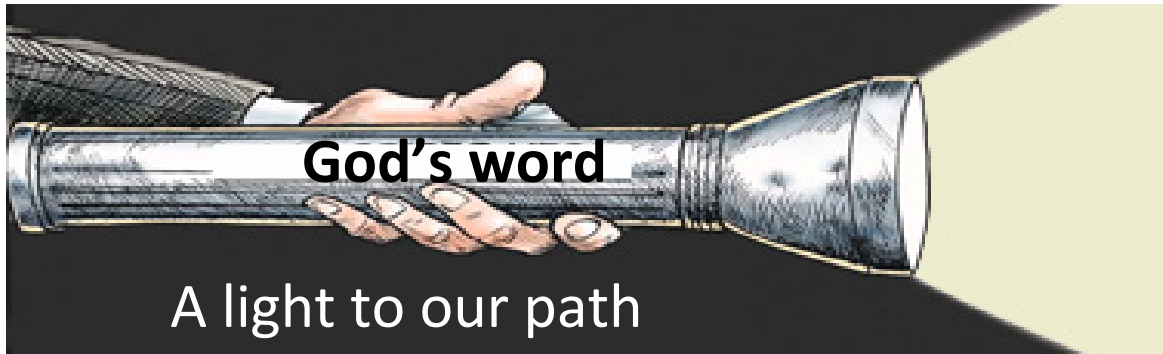

Points for Home

“Paul had gathered a bundle of sticks” (Acts 28:3)

Paul – useful in small matters as well as great

Points for Home

“And the brothers there, when they heard about us, came” (Acts 28:15)

Points for Home

“And the brothers there, when they heard about us, came” (Acts 28:15)

Get connected!

IMB (Int'l Mission Board) Missionaries to Malta

Robin, Nathan, Kathryn, Earl, and Thomas Pinkston