1. Where and how did Paul use the Old Testament?

Do you have a Bible?

Paul would not have lugged around a full Old Testament

But Paul did have some scriptures

“When you come,
bring the cloak that I left with Carpus at Troas, also the books [“scrolls”], and above all the parchments” (2
Tim. 4:13)

The scriptures were “God breathed”

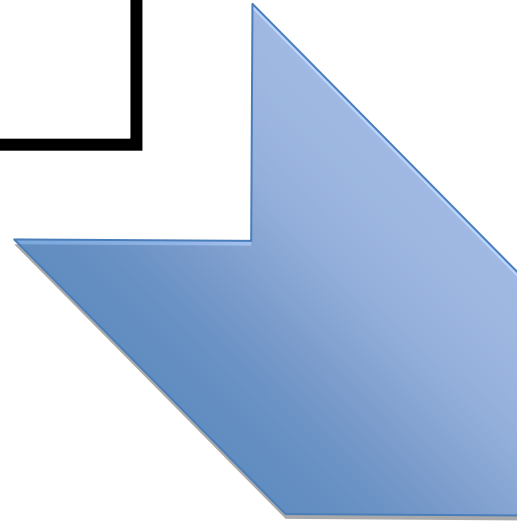

The scriptures were “God breathed”

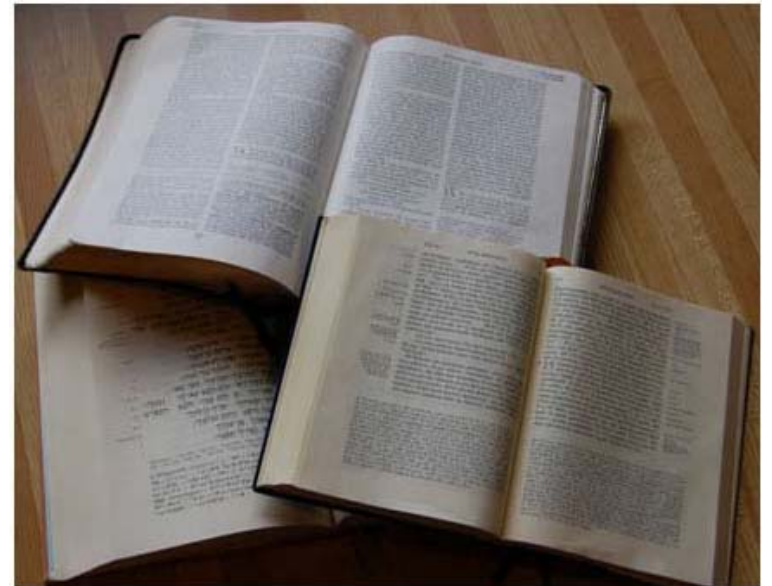

“All Scripture is breathed out by God and profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, and for training in righteousness, that the man of God may be competent, equipped for every good work.”
(2 Tim 3:16-17)

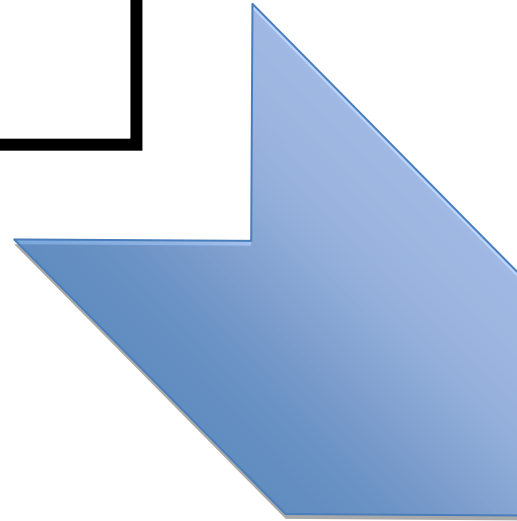

God

“God breathed” –
they are filled with vitality and life!

God

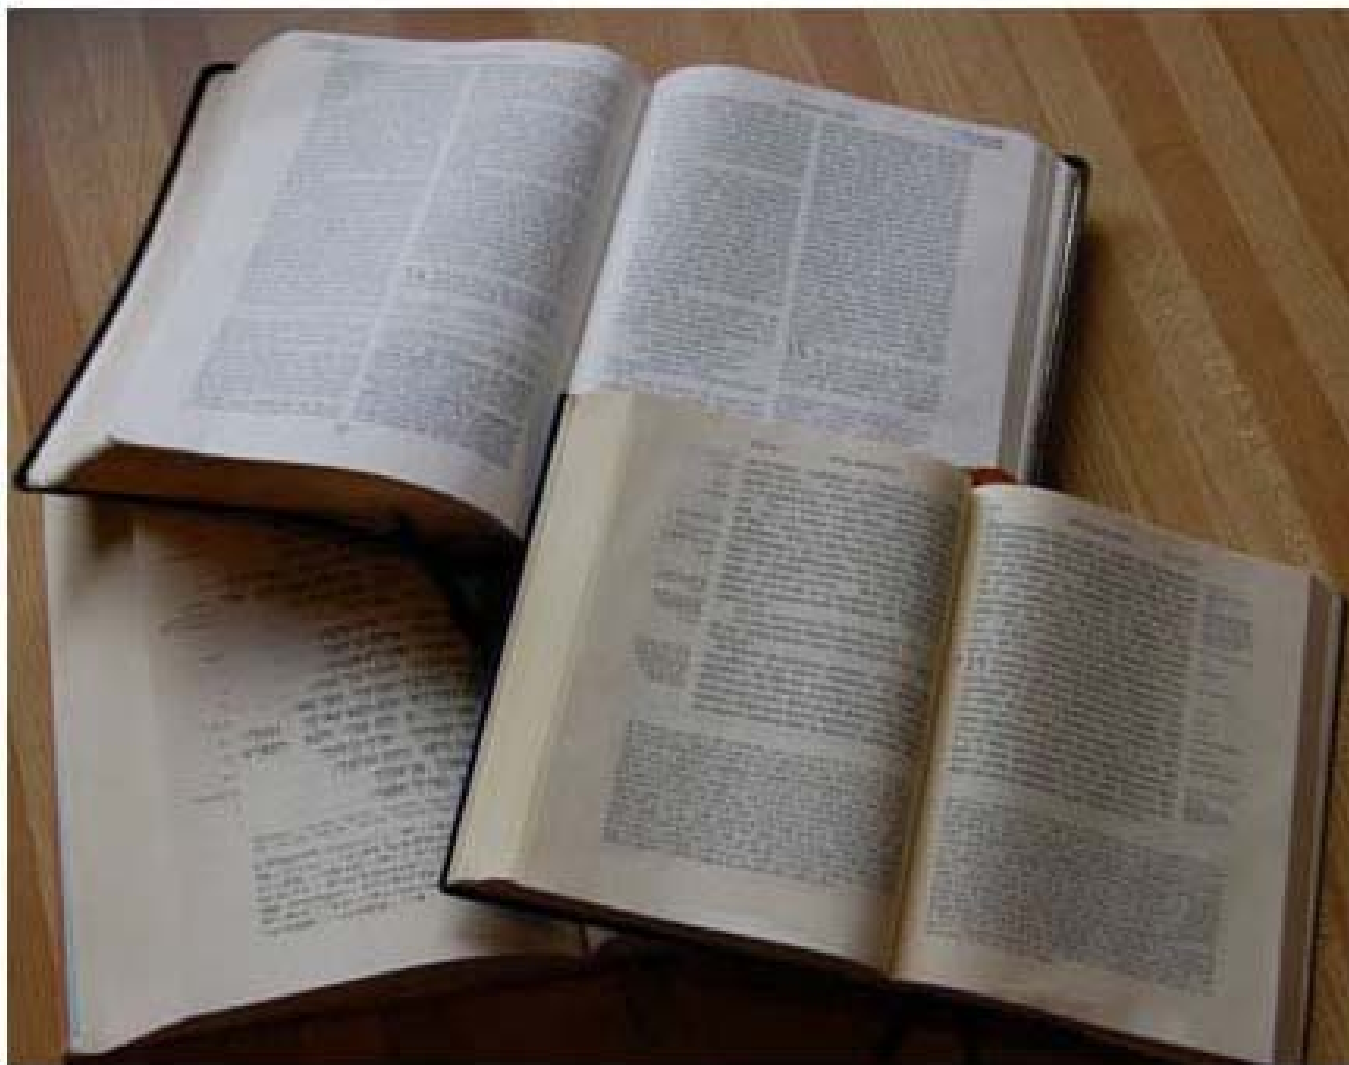

“God breathed” –
they came from God

“God breathed” –

The Jews “were entrusted with the oracles of God.” (Rom. 3:1-2)

The “oracles of God”: the needed answers for life’s most important questions

The scriptures were God's tool of instruction and hope

The scriptures were God's tool of instruction and hope

“For whatever was written in former days was written for our instruction, that through endurance and through the encouragement of the Scriptures we might have hope.”
(Rom. 15:4)

Real hope comes from God and his word

Don't forget Gen. 17:5!

Then Paul applied it to his readers...

Then Paul applied it to his readers...

“Therefore, since we have been justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ” (Rom. 5:1).

The background of the slide is a photograph of an open book, likely a Bible, resting on a wooden surface. The pages are filled with text, and the book is slightly angled. Overlaid on this image are several text boxes. Three boxes on the left contain the phrases "It is Written...", "The scripture says...", and "The law said..." in red text. A larger box at the bottom contains a quote in black text.

“It is Written...”

“The law said...”

“The scripture
