General Meaning

Hol-i-ness n. 1 the state of being holy.

General Meaning

Hol-i-ness n. 1 the state of being holy.

Holy Greek: hagios (αγιος) set apart, devoted to God.

In Church
History “holiness” refers to achieving a state of sinless perfection - pure as snow

We trace this back to John Wesley

From Wesley we come to America
with Thomas
Webb

Salvation is not enough... You must receive the Holy Ghost. You must be sanctified. You are only Christians in part. I can feel your spirits hanging about me like so much dead flesh.

In the 1800's
we reach Charles
Finney

Perfection is perfect obedience to God's law, perfect love to God and love to neighbor ... morally just as perfect as God. This is attainable and a Christian duty

This permanent sanctification comes about through the “baptism of the Holy Spirit”
