

Paul: a legal case study

The importance of

mens rea

(Latin: “guilty mind”)

Most crimes require a “guilty intent”

Example:

I'm in the kitchen putting rat poison into traps

I leave to answer a knock
at the door

My houseguest comes into the kitchen for coffee

Example:

I'm in the kitchen putting
rat poison into traps

at the door

My houseguest comes
into the kitchen for coffee

Example:

I'm in the kitchen putting
rat poison into traps

at the door

My houseguest comes
into the kitchen for coffee

My houseguest dies from rat poison in coffee

Example:

I'm in the kitchen putting
rat poison into traps

at the door

My houseguest comes

My houseguest dies from
rat poison in coffee

NOT GUILTY of murder because no mens rea

Points for home

Points for home

“As they were stoning Stephen, he called out, ‘Lord Jesus, receive my spirit.’ And falling to his knees he cried out with a loud voice, ‘Lord, do not hold this sin against them.’ And when he had said this, he fell asleep”
(Acts 7:59-60)
