Let's get in the flow of John

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things were made through him, and without him was not any thing made that was made. In him was life, and the life was the light of men. The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it.

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things were made through him, and without him was not any thing made that was made. In him was life, and the life was the light of men. The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it.

The background of the slide is a photograph of a town with red-tiled roofs and a hillside with ruins. A semi-transparent white box is overlaid on the image, containing the text of the Nicene Creed. The text is in a blue serif font, with the phrase "Begotten, not made," highlighted in red.

We believe in one God, the Father Almighty;
Maker of heaven and earth, and of all things visible and invisible.
And in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only begotten Son of God,
Begotten of the Father before all worlds;
God of God, Light of Light,
Very God of Very God,
Begotten, not made,
Being of one substance with the Father;
By whom all things were made;

A blue wireframe hourglass shape, resembling a gravitational well or a spacetime curvature, is centered on a dark blue background. The background is filled with soft, out-of-focus light spots (bokeh) in shades of blue and white. The wireframe consists of a grid of lines that converge towards a central point, creating a three-dimensional effect.
